

Film Study Worksheet

Read the questions before you watch the film so that you will know what to look for while you watch. Take short notes throughout the movie. After the film is over, fully respond to the following questions. Complete the assignment by answering each question in paragraph form. Answers need to be complete and comprehensive, demonstrating that you paid attention to the program and thought about what was shown on the screen. Be sure that the topic sentence of your first paragraph uses key words from the question. All responses should be in complete sentences using proper spelling, grammar and punctuation. The assignment should be typed, double spaced, 12 point, Times New Roman font or Arial.

1. State the title of the film then briefly describe what the film is about.

Notes:

2. Identify the people, places, events, or aspects of people, society or nature that are the focus of this film. Describe and clarify the significance (importance) of each.

Notes:

3. List six facts described in the film that impressed you.

Notes:

4. Describe any aspect of the film that showed you something you hadn't seen before, caused you to think in a new way, or helped you understand something more thoroughly than before. Also, describe how it changed your thinking.

Notes:

5. What comment is being made in this movie about what it is to be human?

Notes:

6. If someone asked you whether you would recommend this film, how would you respond? Fully explain your reasons.

Notes: