

Grading

Ahhhhhh....the ever important information of how I'm going to grade you. There are three areas I'm grading you on: Essays/Research Projects, Projects, and Participation.

20% of your entire grade is based on your projects.

50% of your entire grade is based on your essays and research projects.

30% of your entire grade is based on your participation and social responsibility.

Participation includes doing work in class, journal and homework. Social responsibility includes timeliness, respect, and effort

- I expect all work to be submitted ON TIME.
- If a summative assessment (project) is late, it will received a grade no higher than 70%.
- All other assignments will not be accepted after a week past the deadline.
- If a summative assessment (project) has a lower grade than you wanted, you may revise it.
- Revisions must be turned in a week after you get it back.
- You can revise your work as many times as you want WITHIN the quarter.
- You are required to revise work that is graded below 70%.
- Work from previous quarters WILL NOT be accepted once the quarter is over.
- Extensions must be E-MAILED 48 hours prior to the deadline IN THE PROPER EMAIL FORMAT.